WATER TOWN OF ZHUJIAJIAO SHANGHAI, CHINA

Discover Shanghai's version of Venice in the ancient water town of Zhujiajiao, which was founded more than 1,700 years ago. As you will see, the town is wonderfully atmospheric. Ancient buildings from the Qing Dynasty line the stone streets, centuries-old arched bridges span the canals and narrow lanes wind through the city, lending Zhujiajiao an ambience all its own. A boat ride through the canals presents a different perspective of this unique city. If the waterways are busy, the ride will be even more delightful, as you will get an authentic feel for daily life in one of China's most unusual settings. A historical post office nearby is also intriguing, as it opened in 1862, a time when correspondence was often written on bamboo and wood. You will also browse an ancient pharmacy that dispenses herbal medicines, following a tradition that dates back thousands of years.

ART AND CULTURE OF BELÉM

BELÉM (ICOARACI), BRAZIL

Explore the art and culture of Belém during a half-day tour of this historic city that rubber fortunes helped build. No single building shows this off more than the Teatro da Paz opera house — a fabulously ornate rococo gem from the 19th century located in Belém’s main square. Continuing on the theme of gems, you’ll call on the São José Liberto Jewel Museum, where gold, diamonds, emeralds, tourmalines and other precious gems are on display and the history of mining in Amazonia is explored. At the Museum of Sacred Art, housed in a 17th-century baroque church and considered Brazil’s most important museum, you’ll be dazzled by treasures of a different sort — some 300 pieces of the country’s most impressive religious art. An escorted walk from here brings you to the 17th-century Presépio Fort, now home to a museum focused on the history of Belém’s indigenous residents before, during and after the Portuguese arrived in 1616. Exhibits include everything from ancient funerary urns to coins brought in by settlers. Out on the waterfront patio, original 19th-century cannons still seem poised for a battle that never comes.

BLUFF COVE LAGOON PENGUIN SAFARI
STANLEY, FALKLAND ISLANDS

Enjoy an adventurous off-road journey to a remote cove where breeding penguins are the main beach goers. Your journey begins with a drive through Stanley and past battlefields from the 1982 Falkland Conflict. Reaching Bluff Cove farm, you’ll transfer to a convoy of 4x4 Land Rovers for the exhilarating 30-minute trip out to Bluff Cove Lagoon. Waiting for you here are 1,000 pairs of Gentoo penguins, a growing colony of King penguins with their chicks, and Magellanic penguins who swim over to visit from another island. Walking along the white, sandy beach, watching the penguins dart through the water and amble along the shore, you’ll see a wide range of sea birds and maybe even spot dolphins in the surf or sea lions lolling at the water’s edge. You can even watch the wildlife parade from a cosy beach-side café where they serve up warm beverages and home-baked treats. Bluff Cove Museum is also on hand, where you can find out more about the farm and the lagoon menagerie as well as watch live demonstrations of spinning and felting done with local wool. All told, you’ll have about an hour to revel in this extraordinary wild environment before the return to Stanley.

NEW ZEALAND'S NATURAL WONDERS

3 nights FROM Auckland, New Zealand

Experience the diversity of New Zealand's North Island from Auckland's spectacular harbour location. In contrast to the gentle white sand beaches of the city suburbs, visit the rugged west coast of Auckland where the Tasman Sea pounds the black sand beaches. See the rare mainland gannet colony and vineyards and travel to the fertile countryside south of Auckland to experience the magical glowworm caves at Waitomo.

BORA BORA OFF-ROAD ADVENTURE
BORA BORA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Experience Bora Bora's natural beauty in an exhilarating new way on an adventure that definitely takes the road less travelled. This is one of the world's most ravishing islands – but exploring its most pristine terrain sometimes requires leaving the paved roads in the rear-view. Departing the pier by specially-equipped 4WD tour vehicle, your driver will be able to navigate off-road tracks that climb steep terrain, visit remote sights, and fully introduce you to the landscape and lifestyles of Bora Bora. Highlights of this island-wide ramble include scaling Pahonu Hill for expansive views of Bora Bora's natural harbour and Matira Beach, and an ascent to seaside hills to see WWII coastal defence cannons left behind by the U.S. military. Exploring the northern shore, you'll traverse the lush valley of Fa'anui, pass sacred stone marae temples where locals have worshipped for centuries, and view Fa'anui Bay from a plantation high up in the mountains – gazing down on waters reflecting every shade of azure, turquoise and indigo imaginable. And, since everyone should know how to rock a sarong, you'll stop in at a local pareo house where these classic hand-made island wraps are made and sold.
